

In stunning Cortina De'Ampezzo, high in the Italian Alps, you will have a day of dazzling peaks and quaint alpine village activities to enjoy. By day, we will tour the filming locations from 1981's "For Your Eyes Only" including the Ski Jump, the Observatory and the village plaza as well as other Cortina gems and by night, you will have the evening to yourself to prowling the village in search of romance, fine wine and Italian cuisine, as only suave agents can do. Our hotel for the evening, the Miramonti Grand, was featured in several scenes as James Bond, played by Roger Moore, continued his quest to pursue the villains, protect the girl and in his hotel room, resist the advances of Bibi, the skater protege of Kristatos. *Trivia: While his room 300 does NOT exist, the balcony scenes were filmed in 108, so we may have a wonderful photo opp of you there.

To quote Miramonti, "At the beginning of XX Century, two young newlyweds went to visit their property in Peziè place. At that time they wanted
