

Page 12 NEWSDAY GOOD LIVING Sunday January 30, 2011

Travel life

NEW ORLEANS is one of the stops on the tour.

THE BOND tour also heads to Nassau,
Bahamas.

Licence to cruise exotic Bond locales

By HELGA TRIM

FOR JAMES BOND fans around the world, 2011 will be the year to experience the sites, sound and tastes of the James Bond lifestyle and visit not one 007 film location but three! "2011 Villains and Voodoo Cruise" will take fans to some of the most glamorous locations in New Orleans, Key West and Nassau, Bahamas.

This year, fans from around the globe are invited to journey to "Live and Let Die's" jazzy streets of New Orleans, the Hemingway House in Key West where James Bond resigns his "Licence to Kill" then sunny Nassau for "Casino Royale", "Thunderball" and "Never Say Never Again". Hard to access sites are all included in this Bond adventure to relish. Theme Party People, Richard Spillman and his wife Leslie will once again create an exciting atmosphere with films, events and challenging Bond games and trivia.

Theme Party People will cruise out

BUNGEE JUMPING from Versaca Dam, Locarno Switzerland. at 1 pm on August 19. Yes, there will be plenty of time to lounge in elegant, evening attire sipping martinis, "shaken, not stirred." It's the only way Theme Party People know how to do it.

Richard Spillman asserts that fans will truly experience the Bond lifestyle. "On all levels, some just enjoy the networking with like minded people, oth-

And while James Bond movie number 23 has been put on hold indefinitely, with the sixth actor to play Bond signed to reprise the role, the show goes on in Bond's popular haunts across the western Caribbean.

Unfortunately, I'm unable to take part in Theme Party People's 2011 instalment of "James Bond's Villains and Voodoo Tour". But for those Bond buffs who venture on the Carnival Triumph, I'm sure they'll have stories to tweet about. This is your chance for a rare visit to the exclusive One and Only Club to have a Vesper martini where Daniel Craig began his reign as the new 007.

In 2007, they created the sold out 070707 Casino Royale Tour of Nassau and Ocho Rios/Key West visits in the "LTK2009 Licence to Kill 20th Anniversary Tour".

In 2010 they did it again with "Bond, Bourne and Beyond Euro 2010". In 2011, it's about "villainy, treachery and debauchery". If that sounds like an

2 / 3

Outdoor

+41 (0)79 60

Well, the article is wonderful, Richard Spillman is my code name :)